Keisuke Hatano is a partner at Anderson Mōri & Tomotsune. Keisuke specializes in payment and settlement-related regulations. He has also been involved in a number of significant finance transactions, including representing clients in many cross-border and domestic litigations on finance-related matters, among others. During his time at Anderson Mori & Tomotsune, he was also seconded to the Financial Services Agency of Japan (FSA), where he was an instrumental part of the team tasked with making significant amendments to the Banking Act with the aim of facilitating a pro-FinTech ecosystem and environment in Japan.

Keisuke also serves as a member of the committee on self-regulatory regulation of Japan Association for Financial APIs, which is a self-regulatory body certified by the FSA under the Banking Act.

From 2023 to 2024, leveraging his knowledge in payment and settlement-related regulations and his experience working for the FSA, Keisuke played significant roles in several leading stablecoin projects under the new regime established under the amended Payment Services Act.
